To enact a comprehensive legislative response to the threats posed by the Chinese Communist Party to the United States of America and to freedom, democracy, and human rights around the world.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. MCCARTHY introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on _____

_____
A BILL

To enact a comprehensive legislative response to the threats posed by the Chinese Communist Party to the United States of America and to freedom, democracy, and human rights around the world.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “China Task Force Act”
5 or the “CTF Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

1           (1) The Chinese Communist Party (CCP) is
2 completely committed to a hostile communist ide-
3 ology in which individuals exist to serve the state,
4 enjoying rights and freedoms only at the state's dis-
5 cretion.

6           (2) The CCP applies this ideology onto the Peo-
7 ple's Republic of China (PRC) through a system of 8 government called "socialism with Chinese charac-9 teristics", the main tenet of which is the absolute to-
10 talitarianism of the CCP. CCP General Secretary Xi
11 Jinping recently described this political system by 12 writing "the Party, the government, the military, the 13 people, and academia—east, west, south, north, and 14 center—the Party leads everything".

15           (3) The CCP's adherence to communist ide-
16 ology and its application of this ideology through to-
17 talitarianism drives its persistently malign conduct
18 as the CCP seeks to eliminate perceived threats to 19 the security of its regime.

20           (4) The CCP has legally defined the national 21 security of the PRC as the "absence of international 22 or domestic threats to the state's power", enshrining
23 in law its belief that the CCP will not be secure until 24 all threats foreign and domestic are eliminated, a
25 concept which requires external aggression.

1           (5) The CCP considers constitutional democ-
2 racy, internationally recognized human rights, free
3 markets, independent journalism, and internal dis-
4 sent to be security threats.

5           (6) It is a bedrock American principle that the 6 United States Government is not built to grant 7 rights, but to protect rights inalienable to every 8 human being, and furthermore that the infringement
9 of such rights anywhere is unjust.

10          (7) Driven by its hostile communist ideology
11 and enabled by decades of foreign policy from the 12 United States and likeminded democracies which 13 disregarded this ideology, the CCP has risen to be-
14 come the United States' prevailing economic and na-
15 tional security threat of this generation.

16          (8) The CCP's malign conduct, its threat to 17 American interests and values, and its fundamental 18 illegitimacy as a means of governing one-fifth of 19 mankind all ultimately derive from the CCP's hostile
20 communist ideology. As in the United States' prior 21 great power competition with a communist super-
22 power, the United States' goal should be the end of 23 the CCP's monopoly on power, rather than indefinite 24 coexistence with a fundamentally hostile communist 25 state.

1           (9) The theory that unprincipled economic en-
2           tangement with the PRC's CCP-controlled economy
3           would induce economic and political liberalization
4           while contributing to United States interests has 5           been proven false. Decisive action is required to stop
6           the CCP from further exploiting the United States
7           economy, defend United States national security in-
8           terests, impose costs on the CCP's malign actions,
9           and uphold American values.
